

Bio Hans-Hinrich Kruse Hans-Hinrich Kruse, born 7. 11. 1955 on a farm in Schleswig-Holstein, northern part of Germany. He has studied Chemistry at Christian-Albrechts University in Kiel and left the University with a PhD.

My business life I spent in the decorative foil industry. After 15 years with a company in Hannover, in 2002 we moved to Oehringen in southern Germany. There I worked as COO, later CEO of a middle-sized Company in foil industry. We acquired and founded daughter companies in Germany, USA and China and developed well. The Company was sold to Continental Tyre in 2017 and I retired in 2019.

My wife Marianne is a physiotherapist, and she managed her own practice for many years. We are married for 39 years and have two children and two grandchildren. Our hobbies are our family, golf, and cycling.

I joined Rotary in 2001 in Hannover and since 2004 I am member of the Rotary club KuenzelsauOehringen. My presidential year was in 2010/11.

Actually, I am Governor-Elect for the German District 1830, which is located around Stuttgart in the south of Germany.
