

Hans-Guenther Gellersen

Hans-Guenther Gellersen was born in Lueneburg, Lower Saxony, Germany in 1954. After graduating from school, he trained to become a bank clerk, but then took up Protestant theology and became a Lutheran pastor in congregations and diaconal institutions until 2019 when he retired with Emeritus status.

He became a Rotarian in 1992 and has been a member of several clubs including serving as the Charter President of his current club in Bad Bederkesa, Germany. He has served as a Group Study Exchange Team leader, been on the District 1850 board, has been an Assistant Governor for five years, and is the District Governor Elect for 2022-23.

For those geographically inclined, Bad Bederkesa is in northern Germany about 100 miles west of Hamburg.

His wife, Evelyn Gellersen, worked as a Funeral Director.
