

Kath Bromilow

Kath Bromilow and John Bassinder live in a small village on the edge of the South Lakes in England between Lancashire and Cumbria.

Kath has been a Rotarian for 9 years. John is not a Rotarian but is a strong supporter and assists her club at every opportunity.

Between them they have four children ranging in age from 25 to 44 years old. Kath is 63 and John is 58.

Both Kath and John are retired police officers with 30 years of experience. They now work as investigators with the Ambulance Service working with a Patient Safety Team.

Kath is a local Councilor (public official) and past Mayor of her town. She is also a Trustee on a fund for children and young people. John is very interested in photography, nature and animals.
